LONDON LIBRARY,
ST. JAMES'S SQUARE, S.W. 1.

THE LONDON LIBRARY contains over 300,000 volumes. Standard Works of current literature and older and rarer volumes, in various languages, are added from time to time to the number of over 7000 a year. The collection is thoroughly representative, selected from the literatures of many countries and embracing works on almost every subject. While primarily intended for the supply of serious literature, the Library does not wholly exclude works of fiction. All Members have free access to the shelves.

Fifteen volumes at a time are allowed to Country Members; Ten to residents in London. The annual subscription is three guineas, and there is an entrance fee of three guineas. The composition for life membership varies according to age. For every extra pound per annum, an additional number of Volumes may be had at the rate of five Volumes at one time of old Works, or the supply, by the purchase of another copy, of any new Work (provided it is already in the Library)

Fourteen days are allowed for the perusal of new Books (i.e. Books published within the last twelve months), and two months for Books of older date.

The Reading Rooms, which are open daily from Ten to Six, are furnished with Dictionaries and Encyclopædias, English and Foreign Periodicals, and with the current literary papers.

The Library is closed three days at Easter and three days at Christmas, on Whit-Monday and August Bank Holiday.

Subscribers are admitted on the recommendation of a Member, subject to the approval of the Committee.

C. T. HAGBERG WRIGHT,
Secretary and Librarian.

1920.

NOTE

THIS SUPPLEMENT contains all the books added to the Library from the time the new edition of the Catalogue was going through the press in 1913 up to the middle of 1920. It includes, among other collections, the late Mr A. C. Lee's bequest of Romance literature, the Royal Agricultural Society's gift of eighteenth-century pamphlets, purchases from the Bywater collection of Classical books and the Van de Weyer library of Belgian books.

The Committee desire to thank Mr C. Ll. Davies for his valuable help in reading the printed sheets as they appeared.

References to books, the main entries of which were included in the 1913 Catalogue, are preceded by †. E.g. Enghien (le duc d'), see †WELSCHINGER (H.) Le duc d'E., 1913. All entries thus marked will be found in the main Catalogue.

† before an alternative heading in square brackets denotes the British Museum form, where it differs from that adopted by the London Library. Many alternative forms already given in the 1913 Catalogue are here omitted.

PLACE OF PUBLICATION.—Much space has been saved by omitting systematically the names of certain places of publication which frequently recur. For example:—

Berlin	is omitted where titles of works are in			German

L.	= Leipzig	St.	= Stuttgart
Liv'l.	= Liverpool	Str.	= Strassburg
M'ter.	= Manchester	W.	= Washington

The explanation of other symbols and abbreviations will be found in the main Catalogue, but some of the more common abbreviations, with a few additional ones, are given overleaf.

Several volumes which are described as "wanting" in the Catalogue have been acquired, and therefore it is necessary to consult both the Catalogue and this Supplement. It is the intention of the Committee to continue to complete imperfect sets, and any gift by Members of missing volumes would be welcomed.

The price of this Supplement to Members is £2, 2s. net. To non-members, £2. 10s. net.

The price of the Subject-Index (1 vol., 1909) to Members is £1, 10s.: to non-members, £2.

SHORT LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS

In the great majority of cases the contractions used are, it is hoped, clear from the context. A more complete list is given in the 1913 edition of the Catalogue.

In inflected languages, where the terminations are variable according to context, one form alone is given below.

The following endings, among others, are systematically omitted :—
